COAL! COAL!—ANTHRACITE and BITUMINOUS.—Orders left at the Furniture Salesroom, Water street, will be promptly attended to. Yard adjoining the Furniture Factory. Jan 20-d&wtf

A hard looking case named Burns Saturday evening about 7 o'clock threw a big lump of coal through Post's window at Douglas' drug store, making a hole large enough to admit of the passage of Rogers' plug hat, when instead of making off, Burns stood conveniently near until an officer took him in charge and landed him in jail. It was a trick to secure a night's lodgings, which the city's guest freely admitted.

The Potter-Millikin entertainment, which is to come off at the tabernacle on Wednesday evening of this week, is attracting a good deal of attention, and will be likely to draw a full house. The high reputation of Miss Potter as a reader entertainer has led to a large hearing, and the fame of Miss Millikin as a piano performer, is well known to Decatur people, and there will be a general desire to hear her. Tickets are on sale at W. H. Abbott's and Curtis & Ewing's. To accommodate those who desire to attend church exercises at the tabernacle will not commence until 8 o'clock.

A Hannibal (Mo.) paper holds the following language: "Miss Potter is to-day the latest impersonator in America. No such entertainment as she gives has ever before been witnessed in this city."

A BIG TAKE.—The sale of seats for the Berger Family show commenced at Abbott's this morning, and at noon to-day the diagram of the opera house showed that there had been a big take. Those wanting good seats should make their selections soon.

THE SHAGBARKS.—This attractive comedy will be presented at the opera house on Friday evening of this week, with John T. Hinds as the impersonator of the Irish character, who has no superior if he has an equal in that line in the country. We call attention to the advertisement which appears in another place.

DR. BANCROFT, who advertised himself to "lift the blanket off Kansas" at the opera house Saturday night, unfortunately had a very, very, very slim audience—two reporters, two lone women, several scene-shifters, and a few scholastic gentlemen. The doctor had his specimens of Western products and curiosities on exhibition, but owing to the sparse attendance he continued not to speak, and the doors of the hall were left open that all might pass out, while the lecturer pecked up his traps, slowly repeating to himself, "I guess I'm not far enough east." The doctor will lecture at Belmont to-night. From thence he goes to Ft. Wayne, Ind., and thence to Lima, Ohio.

HOMES AND MULES WANTED.—Mr. Thomas Fabry, Jr., will be at Caldwell's, lively stable on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week for the purpose of buying horses and mules. Persons having stock of this kind to dispose of will find this a good opportunity to sell at a good price.

Lost or Stolen.—A large black New Foundland dog—small white spot on his breast; eyes a little sore. A liberal reward will be paid for his return to Michael Farmer, 27 North Franklin street. Jan 17-d&wtf

TABERNACLE TEMPERANCE.

Address by an Iowa Gentleman—Bill Monahan's Resolution and How He Kept It.

There was the usual crowd out at the tabernacle meeting at the tabernacle Saturday night. The exercises were conducted by D. L. Bunn, with Miss Lizzie Alloways as organist. The speaker of the evening was H. W. Everhardt, of Davenport, Iowa, traveling agent of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, who delivered an interesting and logical address on the subject of temperance. He is a very easy speaker, and presented many new thoughts in a convincing and polished manner. His remarks were frequently applauded, and at the close, on motion of Capt. Post, the gentleman received a hearty vote of thanks for his speech. Among those who responded to the invitation to come forward and sign the pledge was a rough-looking customer, 40 years of age, who was promptly labeled with a blue ribbon. It was evident that he was more than a little full, and as he requested it, he was kindly permitted to make a few remarks, though they were inaudible ten feet away. Our reporter afterwards learned that this new convert was a plug tobacco maker, and tobacco his statement, he said for years he worked at his calling at Springfield, amassing a fortune of $25,000, and when John D. Harper got away with so much whiskey money, taking nearly all of his wealth with him, he became discouraged, lost all interest in worldly things, and took to drinking. And then, with the bright blue ribbon still pinned to the lapel of his demoralized coat, the man who had stood up in the presence of the multitude at the tabernacle 20 minutes before, and with uplifted hand, solemnly declared, as long as God let him live, he would never touch another drop of whiskey, he pulled a pint bottle of "red-eye" from his coat tail pocket and swallowed about a glassful, smacking his lips, saying: "That's pretty good medicine. I have taken it for 25 years, and if I live I'll take it 25 more." The old bun had a file, a soldering iron, and several other tools in his possession, and as he wandered out into the cold air, staggering, and singing a bacchanalian song, we wondered if the police would gather him in, and speculated on the hypocrisy of the human race, especially of the male sex, when soaked with "forty-rod."

THE SKELETON.—Later on while the wind was whistling chillily around the corner of the tabernacle, the above individual meandered up toward Priest's Hotel with a quarter in his right hand and his tools in his left hand. Walking into the office of Priest's Hotel, he demanded sleeping accommodations, and laid his quarter on the counter. He had struck a 50 cent bounce, and had been enveloped from head to foot in blue ribbons he could not have rested his frame in one of Priest's downy couches for less. He was told to go to the American House. He went out into the cold night air, and later on he was found by Merchant Policeman Wilkinson in a drunken sleep on the icy sidewalk at the corner of Prairie and Water street, with his tools lying beside him and his blue ribbon fluttering from his coat like a signal of distress. He was aroused from his deathlike sleep and taken to the calaboose, where he was taken care of by Jailer Adams. He gave his name as Billy Monahan. He was assessed the usual fine to-day.

CLEARING SNOW FROM WALKS.—The importance of clearing snow from the sidewalks is clearly apparent in all parts of the city at present, since the snow by partially melting has turned to ice, rendering them as slippery as a skating rink. The matter of whose duty it is to keep the walks clear of ice and snow has been much discussed, some claiming that it should be done by the occupants of premises, while others claim that the city should do it, and we believe a recent decision of the Supreme Court sustains the latter view of the case. The ground on which this decision rests is that the sidewalks are public domain, and that it is the duty of the city to keep them clear of obstructions and in a safe condition for persons passing over them. However this may be, it would certainly be but a comparatively light job for the city, with a scraper made for the purpose, to go over the walks immediately after every snow storm, and so far remove the snow as to render the walks passable in all parts of the city. While such a move on the part of the city would be attended with comparatively little labor and expense, it would contribute greatly to the comfort and safety of pedestrians. We hope that the city fathers will inaugurate the measure, and direct the street supervisor to carry it out.

IN LIMBO AGAIN.—John Jackson who was arrested on Friday by Marshal Crang and taken to Clinton, as the supposed murderer of one John H. Jackson, of Clark county, Mo., proved to be the wrong man, and as soon as the officer ascertained this fact the prisoner was released and arrived here on Saturday last. In the evening Jackson got blind drunk and brought up near the residences of Uncle Billy Young and a man named Carrier, northwest of the city. A row ensued, and the "hero of three wars" belted Jackson over the head with his cane. This only made matters worse, and the upshot of the whole affair was that Young and Carrier came into the city and swore out a state's warrant against Jackson, and Sheriff Forstner landed that rascally terror of Storeys Creek in the county jail, where he will languish until he has a preliminary hearing before one of our justices.

ACTORS AND ACTRESSES.

General and Local Theatrical News—Coming Entertainments, &c.

In almost every community there is a class of people who are constantly questioning reporters and others in reference to the whereabouts of actors or actresses whom they have seen or read about, hence the necessity of arranging the following information, which is perfectly reliable:

THE STAGE.

Len. Grover's "Boarding House" troupe broke down in Chicago last week. This company gave a fine entertainment here this season.

Joe Murphy, the popular Irish comedian, will play an engagement at Hooley's, in Chicago, this week, appearing in "Kerry Gow," "Shannon Rhea" and "Maumere." Murphy will be here Feb. 8th.

The John Dillon Comedy Company is about to make a trip through the mountains of Colorado.

Jack Haverley's Georgia Minstrels are doing a big business in California, and Josh Hart is a failure there.

The Louisa Pomeroy troupe met with quite a serious misfortune in Texas recently. Their train tumbled down an embankment, injuring nearly every actor in the company, and seriously injuring Miss Pomeroy. They have been laid up for repairs.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Miss Helen Potter, a reader of considerable reputation, will give some of her personations of prominent men, actors and actresses, at the tabernacle, on Wednesday evening next, assisted by our favorite pianist, Miss Dollie Millikin.

John T. Hinds, the celebrated Irish comedian, in the "Shagbark," at the opera house, Friday and Saturday evenings, Jan. 24th and 25th.

Ed Smith Russell and the renowned Berger Family, at the opera house Monday evening, Jan. 27th.

A new version of Uncle Tom's Cabin, at the opera house, Wednesday, Jan. 29th.

Jim Barnev and Dick Oglesby Concert Company, at the opera house, Tuesday evening, Feb. 12th.

ST. FRANCIS HOSPITAL.

Fair and Festival for the Benefit of the Same.

A meeting of ladies interested in the welfare of St. Francis Hospital, was held at Mrs. Butler's photograph parlor on Saturday afternoon. It was decided to hold a fair and festival, at the tabernacle, on the evenings of February 19th, 20th and 21st, for the purpose of raising funds to properly furnish the hospital. The soliciting committee submitted very encouraging reports, showing that the public was disposed to assist the ladies in their efforts to aid the Sisters in permanently establishing the hospital. The following ladies will take charge of the funds at the proposed fair: Mrs. J. G. Shea, Mrs. J. T. Barnett, Miss Helen Moore, Mrs. John Moffett and Mrs. Joseph Hewes.

THE WORKING COMMITTEES.—At the temperance meeting at the tabernacle Saturday night the following were appointed as special committees to secure signatures to the "Home Protection Petition," and also names to the petition praying for a prohibition amendment to the state constitution.

First Ward.—Mrs. Hiram Buck, Mrs. Henry Bishop, Newton Cook, Robert McClellan, John Giblin, J. P. Eckles, E. S. Roe, Harry Aldridge, A. Duet and Thomas Harris.

Second Ward.—Edward Hughes, Lizzie Alloways, Ida Coltrin, Mrs. Ella Smith, Gertrude Lanham, Mrs. Frank Skelley, Hattie Bury, H. W. Hill, D. T. Sherman and David Burling.

Third Ward.—Mrs. M. P. Murphy, Mrs. W. H. Addis, Mrs. Nellie Baker, Mrs. J. H. Rayton, Mrs. Chapman, Ed. Luttrell, Anderson Bradley, Wm. Niedermyer and Hester Fields.

Fourth Ward.—Emma Williamson, Mrs. Allen Scott, Jennie E. Young, Mrs. Henry Stafford, Mrs. J. B. Witzbrenner, Isaac Regan, Michael Elson, Samuel Barnes and J. N. Fuller.

A Dangerous Torpor.

Torpor or inactivity of the kidneys is seriously dangerous to those organs, since it is the precedent of diseases which destroy their substance and endanger life. This sluggishness may be overcome by stimulating them, not excessively, but moderately, an effect produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a general invigorant and alterative, possessing diuretic properties of no common order. The impetus which this admirable medicine gives to their executive function counteracts any tendency to congestion which may exist in their tissues. Both they and their associate organs, the bladder, are invigorated as well as gently stimulated by the Bitters, which exerts a kindred influence upon the stomach, liver and bowels, and by strengthening the system, enables it to withstand malarial epidemics, to which, when exposed it might otherwise succumb. PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. Hugh Crea came in from St. Louis at noon to-day.

Reed Spencer, manager of the grange store on South Main street, was one of the commercial travelers westward to-day.

Mr. C. B. Seymour, advance agent for John T. Hinds' celebrated impersonator of Irish character, made the Republican office a business call this forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Glor will celebrate their golden (50th) anniversary wedding on Wednesday evening next, at their residence, corner of North Church and Cerro Gordo streets.

Leslie Evans, the bold mountaineer from the Pacific slope, gave a sumptuous dinner to a small coterie of friends at the St. Nicholas yesterday.

We are happy to learn that Mr. William Martin, who has been dangerously ill for some time past, is now much better, and is in a fair way to recover.

Cy. M. Imboden has been chosen librarian at the First M. E. Sunday School, and W. R. Shull has been appointed assistant superintendent.

Miss Lida Noyes, of Danville, who has been a guest in the family of Rev. Dr. Goodwin for the past ten days, returned home to-day. Her stay has been very pleasant, and her friends will give her a cordial welcome back at any time.

When last heard from Miss Mary Wilder, late principal of the 4th ward school in this city, was in Rome, Italy, where she will remain two weeks; thence she goes to Florence and Vienna, before returning home in July.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY.—Mr. Morgan, who was arrested on Friday night last, charged with and as severity in whipping one of his pupils, made us aware to-day and told his side of the whipping story. He says that the marks upon the boy which led to his indictment were made by a terrible flogging which the boy's father gave him a day or two before he, the teacher, switched him with a little twig not larger than a rice straw. Instead of being a nephew of John Morgan, the rider, he is a cousin of that celebrity. He has given the required bail, and is confident of an acquittal when the case comes to trial.

SWEETER, CLEANER, PURER. Refined and intelligent ladies use Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, Lily of the Valley or Pot Rose. Such ladies have a taste for the beautiful, prove affectionate companions, and will keep well-ordered households. To the lower orders all smells are alike; it is the sweeter, cleaner, purer, that enjoy Dr. Price's rich odors.

DISCHARGE.—Eliph. Rivas, who has been under arrest for several days charged with an assault upon Hawkins with a deadly weapon, was brought before Justice Peake this morning for a preliminary examination. Attorney Hurdley appeared for the people, and Thomas Lee for the defendant. Considerable discussion took place between the counsel, as to the settlement of the preliminaries of the trial, and finally a charge of venue was taken by defendant to Justice Curtis, where the examination took place. After hearing the testimony in the case the court discharged Rivas from custody.

MARRIED.

Joy to the World.—The afflicted may now rejoice. A safe, certain and efficient antidote to malaria has been found. CURSON'S DEPURATOR is a perfect remedy against all diseases caused by malaria. It not only breaks the chill, but thoroughly eradicates the poison. Its action is truly wonderful; it cures malarious diseases of every kind—Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodic Headache and Bilious Fevers of all kinds. It is purely vegetable and as harmless as water. Try it and be convinced.

J. C. RICHMONDS, Prop'r, St. Louis.

At the Tabernacle.—Engagement extraordinary, and first appearance in this city of the great wonder-worker, Les Commanche Abbever, the King of the Imps, and Empress of all Wonders, in his grand entertainment entitled, "Two Hours in the Realm of Illusion," he having the recommendations of the press and public wherever he has been. Don't fail to see him Tuesday evening, Jan. 28th, for one night only. This is a strictly moral and novel entertainment. Jan 24-d&wtf

THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.

Preaching, Prayer and Praise.

Yesterday was a good day at the First M. E. Church, Rev. Dr. Goodwin, the pastor, preaching two excellent discourses. In the evening the important question, "What shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world and lose his own soul?" was the topic of discourse, and the sermon was a powerful and searching one, which evidently made a deep impression upon the minds of the hearers. The revival services of this church will be continued this week, and all are invited.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

In the forenoon the pulpit of this church was filled by Rev. Mr. Chapman, who accidentally happened to be spending the Sabbath in the city, and in the evening Rev. Mr. Holt, a former pastor, preached. Mr. Holt's appearance among his old parishioners was very unexpected to them, and right glad were they to see and hear him once more. After the evening service there was a most cordial hand-shaking on the part of the congregation with their old pastor and spiritual guide.

U. N. CHURCH.

At this church the pastor, Rev. A. H. Chittenden, conducted the service both morning and evening, and we learn preached with much much earnestness and power. The congregations at this church are steadily increasing, and the revival services in progress there are increasing in interest.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The congregations at this church were quite large, both morning and evening, the pastor, Rev. W. H. Presley, preaching on the former occasion. In the evening Rev. Dr. Bamstead, of Dekan, occupied the pulpit. Both services were of a deeply interesting character, and we understand there is to be a special service this evening, and probably each evening during the week. All are invited to attend these special services.

CHURCH OF GOD, (OF THE LATE).

The services at the Church of God were well attended yesterday. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Convent, labored with a disadvantage on his part because of a severe cold on his lungs. The services are to be continued every evening this week.

The Professional Intercourse, which has been accorded by leading medical men in various parts of the country to Dr. Wm. Hall's BISMUTH FOR THE LUNGS, is a sufficient guaranty of its efficacy in eradicating diseases of the breathing organs. These gentlemen have thoroughly tested the remedy, and their concurrent testimony is to the effect that it is a positive specific for lung, bronchial and all affections of every description, and a most reliable preventive of that dreaded scourge, consumption.
